

We The People

2Chro.7:13-16; Isa.43:5-7; Rom.13:1-7

7-4-2010

In the truth of Holy Scripture, which is in fact the very Word of God, we find that God calls peoples and nations into existence for His purpose and His Glory. In the history of this Nation of ours we find God Almighty recognized and thanked for His calling us into existence and for His guidance in establishing and in maintaining the various collectives that are so banded together as to form this one united body of people called America. May we Christians, who are called by His name, who are called His people, this day and forever continue to give Him praise, thanks, and glory and may we continue to seek His council, His blessing, and His protection. Lord Jesus, we thank You!
